

JNTUHCEJ, Mechanical Engineering Department, has a well furnished adequately spacious and magnificent Seminar Hall with a sitting capacity of 200 students at a time.

The Department seminar Hall is well equipped with all facilities like Interactive smart white board (Smart display), projector, audio-visual aids and amplifiers etc.

The department organises and invites distinguished academicians and intellectuals in different spheres for addressing the students and the teaching staff on various subjects, topics of academic and other co-related areas with a view to widen the horizon of knowledge of the students and the staff as well.

Competitive programmes, Seminars, Technical Presentations, Project review presentations are also organized to give an exposure to their talents, potentialities and overall development of the students.

Department Seminar Hall equipped with Projector & audio visual aids and with a capacity to accommodate 200 Students (approx).